

I signed up for the "Do Not Call" list about a year ago. I also signed up my mother. Neither of us get ANY unsolicited calls since that time. It is not often that an offer truly is what it says it is. The "Do Not Call" list works exactly as it should. Please do not take away something that the public can truly count on.